

LADY BANBURY'S HORNPIPE.*

Longways for as many as will;
progressive dance in three parts.

(3rd Ed. 1665.)

Arranged by Cecil J. Sharp.

A

B

* This tune is printed by Playford in $\frac{3}{2}$ time, i. e. in two six-bar phrases in duple time instead of two four-bar phrases in triple time. The alteration has been made in order that the rhythm of the music might be brought into accord with that of the dance movements